4. Chairman's Report. The chairman reported that it was good to see Arbiting Matters published again, but the year was dominated unfortunately with deaths. Richard Furness, Jack Spiegel, Frank Hatto, Peter Shaw, John Vassey and Barbara Lamb, a minutes silence was held.
5. Treasurer's Report. The accounts and treasurer's report for the last financial year was circulated and the treasurer reported that 21 of the new shirts had been sold that week. Lara Barnes proposed that the report be accepted, seconded by Stewart Reuben. Finally Steve's proposal that the fees remain the same for the forth-coming year was accepted.
6. Chief Arbiters Report. Dave Welch reported he was dispirited with attending BCF Management Board meetings, he had presented a paper on reviewing the BCF -rules suggesting that each BCF Director work with a Senior Arbiter in revising the rules that relate to their area but nothing had moved forward. Roy Heppistall replied that the minutes had been circulated and the timescale for comments had not expired. Dave then went to report that clear guidance from the BCF over captains rights had been established. It was suggested that the BCF board should take advice from The English Bridge Union on the formation of an "Ethics Committee" and the appointment of a "Compliance Officer". There was a lot of new BCF Arbiters but still one or two in the pipeline. One had been deferred for discussion by the BCF and needed a decision. There was a discussion on arbiters being required to be BCF members or members of their home Chess Association. FIDE rules review In Mallochia was reviewing a lot of changes coming from the public and a lot of it was unnecessary. Arbiters discretion is better than prescription.

7. The BCF delegate gave a report of the BCF Council meeting that he had attended He reported that the BCF had agreed changing its name to English and that the motion agreed at last year's CAA AGM that all BCF arbiters should be members of their national association had been shelved through lack of time.

BCF game fee had gone up to 43p, the grading list was not on the website for legal reasons.
